The Internship Is Dead.

A new model — Parallel Career Education™ — has replaced it.

◆ The old model is broken.

For a century, the path to a career was linear: study, graduate, apply, maybe get lucky with an internship, then enter the workforce five years behind where you could have been.

Forkaia® invented a different model.

Parallel Career Education™ means you do the work while you study. Not after. While.

Week one of your Major, you are inside a live company, executing real tasks, under real supervision, earning real credentials that employers and admissions committees actually recognize.

◆ In a School of Work, your Major IS the job.

You don't study marketing — you run a campaign. You don't study law — you draft a brief.

You don't prepare for engineering — you ship code. You don't read about finance — you build a model.

Every Major in this catalogue is a real career track inside a real company. Eight Studios.

204 Majors. One mission: make you the most employable person in any room you walk into.

◆ Skip college. Ship work. Get hired.
